01

OVERVIEW & HIGHLIGHTS

Marcus & Millichap is pleased to exclusively offer for sale the fee-simple interest in the iconic property at 2725 Shelter Island Drive in San Diego, CA. Located at the entrance to Shelter Island, with views of San Diego Bay and adjacent to the San Diego Yacht Club, the building is home to one of the original Brigantine Seafood & Oyster Bar restaurants, the winner of numerous restaurant awards and a well-established family business since 1969. This nearly 11,000 square-foot property is also leased to two other tenants, including Coldwell Banker and PrimoWind. Coldwell Banker, the century-old real estate company with more than 3,000 offices globally, occupies the majority of the ground floor and has been open for business in this location since the mid 1990's. The third and final tenant, PrimoWind, is a prominent wind-energy startup firm focused on adapting new wind technology into unconventional and urban locations.

On the market for the first time in nearly two decades, the property is a chance for well qualified investors to acquire irreplaceable coastal real estate in an urban environment. The location is less than two miles away from San Diego International Airport, three miles from the beaches of Point Loma and Sunset Cliffs, and only a four mile drive around along the harbor's edge from downtown San Diego. The current ownership has recently invested more than $200,000 into the property, including a new roof with a 20-year roof warranty, and a complete refurbishment and painting of the exterior of the building. The Brigantine, as well, recently invested in this location by renovating and remodeling their interior dining area, demonstrating continued commitment to the site.
