SUMMARY

Senior marketing leader with 15+ years owning marketing strategy, budgets, and cross-functional execution across digital, content, brand, communications, and PR, with experience spanning diverse industries and complex B2B environments, including leading marketing for a national lending platform that grew from $103 million to $1 billion+ in financing volume. Partnered with executives on positioning, communications, and thought leadership that supported the company's go-to-market strategy. A strategist with sharp creative judgment, setting the standard for brand systems, pitch decks, and digital content, and raising the bar for execution across every channel. Skilled at translating complex offerings into clear, compelling narratives.

EXPERIENCE

Bayview Asset Management, Remote

2022 – 2026

Marketing Manager, Bayview PACE (subsidiary of BAM)

- Developed and led all marketing initiatives for a C-PACE lending platform that scaled from $103 million in 2022 to over $1 billion in cumulative financing volume by early 2026
- Directed brand strategy through a major platform integration as Bayview PACE became a division of Bayview Commercial Mortgage Finance, ensuring seamless market alignment
- Owned and optimized the full marketing budget, allocating spend across channels to maximize ROI and campaign performance
- Created all investor-ready collateral: case studies, pitch decks, deal announcements, and sponsor-facing materials, in partnership with senior leadership, originations, and underwriting
- Led PR and external communications strategy: press releases, deal announcements, industry media outreach, and executive thought leadership
- Analyzed performance across organic, direct, referral, email, and social channels to optimize digital strategy and improve acquisition efficiency
- Owned website content strategy so the digital experience reflected the company's growth, credibility, and evolving market position
- Partnered with internal AI teams to automate and enhance marketing workflows and processes
